ARGUS PROS Provides Online Recurrent ICAT Training Course

Cincinnati, Ohio, February 2, 2017

ARGUS PROS, a wholly owned subsidiary of ARGUS International, Inc., and a worldwide leader in on-site audits and world-class auditor training, has announced that it is now providing online recurrent IOSA Conformance Auditor Training (ICAT).

This course highlights the significant changes from the ISM 9 to the ISM 10, and is designed for individuals that have already completed training for IOSA ISARP interpretation. This course meets the recurrent training requirements associated with ORG 3.4.13 (iii)(b). Attendees should have access to the internet and the IATA manual suite throughout the course. This course is self-paced and estimated to take between 2 and 3 hours to complete.

Eric Guenther, Director of Training and Audit Production for ARGUS PROS, commented, "ARGUS PROS is committed to the success of the IOSA Program and as part of this commitment we are excited to launch this training offering as a way to help IOSA Operators around the world train their staff on the changes to the IOSA Standards Manual (ISM)."

Individuals interested in this new offering should call ARGUS PROS at 513-852-5110 or email argus.sales@argus.aero. To learn more about products and offerings that ARGUS PROS can provide, visit <http://argus.aero/pros/>
